

The diagram consists of two nested rounded rectangular boxes. The outer box is larger and contains the text 'outer_state' centered near its top edge. Inside this box is a smaller rounded rectangular box, which contains the text 'inner_state' centered near its top edge. Both boxes have a thin black border and rounded corners.

outer_state

inner_state